Alessandro Leone is a young and brilliant actor. Luca Arcadi turned his back on his wealthy family to become a writer. Adrian Hoeg is a famous Danish theater director. Marco Amedei is a nineteen year old lead actor. The lives of these four men intertwine amid the setting of a Venice theater. They find themselves drawn into in their own drama, filled with romance, deception and anguish. It's said the only difference between a comedy and tragedy is the ending. Will this simply be a comedy of errors? Or will the ending be filled with futile deaths?
